

ROY M. ASHBAUGH, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Barrick:

Q Will you state your full name, please?

A My full name is Roy--

Q You use the initial "A", do you not?

A Wait a little, I have it here.

THE COURT: Let the record show that the petitioner did not even know his name.

A McClennin.

Q McClennin is your middle name, according to your Social Security card?

A Roy McClennin Ashbaugh.

Q "M" as in the center of your health insurance.

Now, Mr. Ashbaugh, you reside at 1019 North Market Street?

A 1019 North Market.

Q Do you feel that because of your advanced age and your physical condition you need help in caring for your property?

A Well, I probably could use it. Ever since - well, I'll say it this way: when I had the accident then is when I lost most of my health. I was pretty good at working and when I lost my wife and she passed away I went out to the orchard - Mrs. Delaplaine's orchard - I worked out there for her.

Q What you are saying is, prior to the accident you carried on pretty well, but you have had trouble managing since then, is that correct?

A Yes, but then after they took the automobile away from me, I didn't have any, to tell the truth about it, I still worked for Mrs. Delaplaine at the time, but then after that I couldn't walk that far, and had some trouble with my leg. What it is I don't know.

Q With Mr. Eyler you are on your way to Union Bridge, are you not?

A Oh yes, I know where we are heading for now.
